

UX/UI Designer (m/w/d)

Work at LiveEO in the vibrant Berlin Start-Up ecosystem

At LiveEO you will be working as a UX/UI Designer in a Berlin-based space Start-Up. Take our products to the next level and help us bring satellite based earth observation to the enterprise sector. Your task is to create mockups for improvements of our core product as well as testing new business opportunities in other industries revealed by our biz dev team. This is an opportunity for a UX/UI designer with practical experience who is also interested in learning front end technologies to bring designs to life. You will be involved in all product stages in a new exciting industry.

Work at LiveEO

We are a dynamic, open-minded, and diverse team with flat hierarchies, spanning different nationalities from all over the globe. We're excited about space, satellites and new possibilities to disrupt markets through the commercialization of the space industry. We are conveniently located in the center of Berlin-Kreuzberg at Gitschiner Str. 94.

Your challenges

- Create interactive prototypes and high fidelity mockups for the business and product teams, as well as our customers, to define how the product should look like.
- Working closely with the frontend and backend team to help realise your designs.
- Work closely with our Customer Success and Product teams to create great UX journeys and ensure customer centricity in our development process.
- Improve/maintain our current customer experience in our web app and mobile app.
- Take a proactive role in our agile and scaling organization and utilize your skills with great project planning and execution.

Your profile

- Practical UX/UI Design experience
- You finished University not more than 2 years ago
- Detail orientated with strong visual communication skills
- User centered design focus
- Confident researching and designing user workflows using UI design software
- Confident with CSS
- Javascript, Node Js., React, Api and GIT experience is big plus but not mandatory
- Fluency in English for verbal and written communication is required.
- You are willing to relocate to Berlin.
- We encourage female applicants as well as applicants with migratory background.
